LOSS BY MR. OLENDORF

BALDWIN THEATER AT SPRINGFIELD BURNED TO GROUND LAST NIGHT.

OTHER STRUCTURES ALSO CONSUMED

Total Loss Will Reach $250,000—Theater Was Under the Management of George F. Olendorf, Formerly of Sedalia.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 6.—A fire broke out at 12:15 o'clock this morning in the Baldwin theater and office building here, completely destroying that structure and a number of other buildings and badly damaging the Colonial hotel and other structures in the business district. The total loss is estimated at $250,000.

Fire Chief Canada was the only person hurt, but his injuries are not serious. The fire was caused by an explosion of gas in the basement of the theater. A strong wind fanned the flames, which spread rapidly to Dr. Nixon's office building, a $25,000 building adjoining, which was completely gutted.

The Colonial hotel, a steel building, suffered, the furnishings of the rooms on one side being burned. The loss on the hotel building will exceed $10,000. All the hotel guests escaped uninjured.

Opie Read lectured at the theater last night and it was an hour after the fire broke out. Mr. Read was one of the guests at the hotel, who were routed from their rooms.

Smoke was discovered pouring out of a window on the fourth floor of the theater at 12:30 o'clock. Firemen ran up ladders, but before they turned on the water flames burst out of the basement of the theater from a room occupied by W. C. Criss, who conducted a clothes pressing shop. It was found that the entire inside of the theater was ablaze and attempts to save the building were fruitless.

The theater building was one of the finest in the city. It was valued at $110,000 and had $50,000 insurance. It was owned by H. B. McDaniel, president of the Union National bank.

George F. Olendorf was the lessee and manager of the theater.

Mr. McDaniel stated this morning that he would rebuild at once.

The Baldwin theater was under the control of the company which owns the Sedalia theater, and George F. Olendorf, who, until this year, was manager here, has been in active charge since last July. He recently moved his family there.

Mrs. Pearl Baird Poteet, of this city, is on a visit to the Olendorfs at the present time.

TOLO OF ENGAGEMENT

It Was Announced at a Party at Home of Mrs. Murphy.

Mrs. J. D. Murphy, 914 South Lamine avenue, entertained eight couples of young friends at her home last night at progressive euchre, and during the entertainment the engagement of Harry B. Press, son of the owner of the Palace Clothing company, to Miss Jennie Cecil Bush, of Des Moines, Ia., was announced, the marriage to occur in early spring.

The entertainment was given in honor of Miss Dora Prince, of St. Louis, who is visiting Mrs. Maurice Welsch, and prizes were awarded to the following: Miss Julia Sullivan, ladies' first prize, a gold hat pin; W. F. Staley, gentlemen's first prize, a sterling silver nail file; Otto Botz, lone hand prize, a naner knife.

After the announcement, which was made by the hostess, followed by the extending of congratulations, refreshment of cream, cake and coffee were served.

KILLED HIS GRANDFATHER

Walter Zellar Convicted at Vineland, New Jersey.

Bridgetown, N. J., Jan. 6.—Walter Zellar, the 19-year-old Vineland young man, charged in company with two companions with the murder of Zellar's grandfather, William Read, was convicted of murder in the first degree today.

Judge Lamm to Administer Oath.

Judge Henry Lamm, of this city, presiding judge of the supreme court, will administer the oath when Herbert S. Hadley is inaugurated as governor at Jefferson City next Monday. It is expected 1,500 members of the National Guard will be present, and the function will be the greatest that the capital has known in many years.

No High School Exercises.

Owing to the absence of the clergyman who was to have been the principal enterainer on the program, the weekly exercises at the High school were cancelled today.

MEETING OF THE W.C.T.U.

IT WAS HELD WITH MRS. J. L. GOLD, 208 EAST FIFTH STREET, TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

PRIZES FOR ARTICLES ON "TEMPERANCE"

The Contestants Are to Be Pupils of the Public Schools—Steps to Bring About State Wide Prohibition.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. J. L. Gold, 208 East Fifth street, Tuesday afternoon, fourteen members being present.

The superintendent of "scientific temperance" reported that this branch of the work was being introduced in the public schools of the city, and the local branch of the W. C. T. U. will soon offer two prizes for the best article on "temperance," the contestants to be from the pupils of grades 7 and 8 in the city schools. The first prize will be $3 and the second prize $2. Later, possibly this month, an address on the same subject will be delivered at the High school. Who will be chosen to make the talk has not been determined.

The program committee reported having completed its work—that is, having arranged a program for the first Tuesday afternoon of each month during the season.

It was reported that the W. C. T. U. will open headquarters at the state capital, to be maintained during the session of the legislature, with a view to having the general assembly submit the question of state-wide prohibition to the voters of Missouri at the election in 1910.

The Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, pastor of the First Christian church, made a brief address, during the course of which he congratulated the ladies on the good work already done in behalf of temperance, and also on the splendid outlook for absolute prohibition in Missouri at no distant day.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. L. Russell, 501 West Fifth street, the first Tuesday afternoon in February.

MRS. MAYBRICK IS TO WED

Lady Lectured at the Sedalia Chautauqua Last Summer.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 6.—Announcement is made that Mrs. Florence E. Maybrick, the American woman who was convicted in England of murdering her husband and sentenced to life imprisonment, but who was released on a ticket of leave, is soon to be married to Charles L. Wagner, of Chicago, secretary of the Clayton Lyceum bureau, under the auspices of which Mrs. Maybrick is lecturing.

FATE IN JURY'S HANDS

Two Women Charged With Murder Will Soon Hear Verdict.

Media, Pa., Jan. 6.—The fate of Mrs. Florence Erb and her sister, Mrs. Catherine Belsel, charged with the murder of Capt. J. Clayton Erb, was placed in the hands of the jury today. The prosecution asks for a verdict of first degree murder for both women.

"Guy" Wants to Know.

Sheriff M. T. Henderson yesterday received a postal card from Dr. Guy Tittsworth, former coroner of Pettis county, who is taking a post-graduate course in Europe, sent from London, England, inquiring if the newly-elected sheriff will permit of his returning to Sedalia.

MISS MARTIN'S RECITAL

LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB ENJOYED A TREAT AT THE ELKS' CLUB ROOMS.

VOCAL NUMBERS WERE BY MRS. STEELE

Mrs. E. F. Yancey Played the Accompaniments—The Greek Songs Were Fully Explained by Miss Jessie Blair.

The Ladies' Musical club met this morning at the Elks' club rooms to listen to a fine piano recital given by Miss Ruth Martin.

This rare musical treat was not a part of the year's program as set down in the year book. Miss Martin was for years a valued member of the club, and its members were anxious to hear her play after her two years' study with Chicago's great piano teacher, Mary Woods Chase.

Although the audience was prepared to enjoy the program, it came as a great surprise and surpassed expectations. Miss Martin shows wonderful improvement along every line. She plays with great accuracy of touch, beautiful style and feeling. Her shading is fine, and especially did this show in the two McDowell numbers.

"Bird as Prophet" was most faintly given, and her closing number, the Schumann novelette, was a brilliant closing for a delightful program.

Mrs. Steele sang her numbers in an artistic manner. Her singing of the "Oh, That We Two Were Maying," by Navin, was full of feeling. The Greek songs, by Lutenmann, were explained in a delightful manner by Miss Jessie Blair.

Mrs. Yancey played Mrs. Steele's accompaniments in the truly artistic manner which characterizes all of Mrs. Yancey's musical work.

There was a large assembly of club members and invited guests. Among the latter were Mrs. Messerly's guests, Mesdames Charles Deneen, Susan Dana and George Day, of Springfield, Ill., who were enthusiastic in their praise of the beautiful program and the Ladies' Musical club.

Miss Martin is to be congratulated upon the improvement she has made in her two years' study, and her friends prophesy for her a brilliant future as a pianist.

The following was the program of the morning:

Beethoven—Sonata Op. 26
Andante con Variazioni
Scherzo
Allegro
Liza Lehmann.....Cameos
Six Greek Love Songs.
MacDowell—Brook; March Wind.
Moskowski.....Etincelles (Sparks)
Bemberg.....Hindoo Song
Dudley Buck.....Sunset
Nevin, Oh, That We Two Were Maying
Chopin—
Two Preludes 3-23
Impromptu Op. 51
Schumann.....Bird as Prophet
Novelette Op. 21, No. 7

COUNTY COURT DOINGS

Ordered to the Asylum—Dr. Dyer Made County Physician.

The judges of the Pettis county court, at today's session, adjudged Lizzie Walsh insane and ordered her taken to the state insane asylum at Nevada.

Dr. D. P. Dyer was appointed a county physician for two years, and Dr. B. W. Harris was named as physician at the county home.

John Stoble was granted a dramshop license, with the distinct understanding that he abolish the restaurant in the rear of his saloon at Main and Kentucky avenue and prevent beer canning in the rear of the saloon.

Miss Wagner, as she advertises herself, but who in reality is a married woman, living in Kansas City, will not return to Sedalia to continue her instruction in basket ball to the pupils of the High school, announcement to this effect having been made Tuesday afternoon.

"Miss" Wagner's husband writes that she is ill, and it is necessary for her to cut out her work here. Some of the woman's pupils here are said to have paid in advance, and they are wondering if their money will be refunded.

Funeral of Judge Rauck.

The funeral of Judge B. J. Rauck will be held from the family residence, 1009 South Ohio avenue, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Dudley M. Clagett, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church, will officiate. The following will be pallbearers: Clem Honkomp, William Miller, Charles Koeck, Winfield Thomas, C. M. Sheets and F. A. Howard. Burial will be made in Crown Hill cemetery.

To Install Officers.

The installation of the officers-elect of Queen City lodge No. 52, K. of P., will take place tomorrow night.

MRS. MARY HOUGH DEAD

PASSED AWAY AT HER HOME ON EAST SECOND STREET AT NOON TODAY.

WAS MOTHER OF MRS. THOMAS KILLION

She Came Here From Jefferson City 47 Years Ago—Was a Member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, This City.

Mrs. Mary K. Hough, 68 years old, died from a complication of diseases at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Killion, 504 East Second street, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. She had been sick four weeks.

Forty-seven years ago, on March 6, next, Mrs. Hough came to Sedalia from Jefferson City, since which time she has made the Queen City her home, always retaining the esteem and respect of every acquaintance, all of whom will learn of her demise with sorrow.

Besides the daughter at whose home she expired, Mrs. Hough leaves another daughter, Mrs. W. R. Kirkpatrick, of Denison, Texas, who was with her mother when she died. Mr. Kirkpatrick, an M. K. & T. conductor, and Miss Mary O'Brien, also of Denison, will arrive tomorrow morning to attend the funeral, the details of which have not been arranged.

Mrs. Hough was a member of the Roman Catholic church, and attended services regularly at St. Patrick's church, on East Fourth street. She also belonged to the Altar society of the denomination.

TO BE WED A SECOND TIME

First Ceremony Not Recognized by Catholic Church.

H. M. Gordon, bookkeeper for the George E. Dugan Co., will leave tonight for Des Moines, Ia., to be united in marriage to Miss Mary Rost, of Valley Junction, Ia., to whom he was married by a justice of the peace on Saturday, Dec. 26.

The second marriage is necessitated by reason of an edict of Pope Pius X, which became effective last Easter, whereby the Catholic church does not recognize the bonds of any member of her fold who has been married by any person other than a Catholic priest.

Miss Rost is a member of the Roman Catholic church, and on that account the ceremony will necessarily have to be performed by a Roman Catholic priest, hence Mr. Gordon's trip tonight.

"DODE" HUBBARD GUILTY

Sentenced to Two Years' Imprisonment in Prison.

A verdict of guilty against "Dode" Hubbard for robbing S. C. Scarlett, an inmate of the Confederate home at Higginsville, Mo., in this city, on the night of December 6, 1907, was returned by a jury in the criminal court today, after an hour's deliberation. Her punishment was fixed at two years.

A. H. Ray, charged with having murdered John W. O'Neill, was furnished with a certified copy of the information.

Walker Bird, charged with assault, was arraigned and his case set for January 20. Stanley Child's case of a similar nature was set for January 11. Bail for the two was fixed at $500 each.

THEIR ANNUAL BANQUET

PETTIS COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY HELD IT TUESDAY NIGHT.

DR. E. F. YANCEY WAS THE TOASTMASTER

Charlie Hall's Orchestra Furnished the Music, Roy Barker Did a "Stunt" and H. V. Leist Was the Caterer.

The annual banquet of the Pettis County Medical society was held at the Elks' club rooms Tuesday night and surpassed in genuine pleasure all of the past functions by a large margin.

Dr. W. G. Cowan, Dr. S. G. Kelly and Dr. George E. McNeil, the committee on arrangements left no comfort undone to make the event a "howling success" in every particular, and at the conclusion of the feast the universal verdict was that the 1908 banquet was the best ever held.

Charles Hall's orchestra furnished the music, while Henry Leist prepared the menu, and a more efficient caterer was never employed to look after the wants of the "ethical" gentlemen of the city. Roy Barker's specialty added much to the evening's enjoyment.

Dr. E. F. Yancey was the able toastmaster. The program follows: Selection—K. P. Barker.

C. C. C.—Dr. W. H. Evans.

Extemporary Diagnosis—Dr. J. D. Prowell.

It Will Never Get Well if You Pick It—Dr. A. J. Campbell.

An Easy Diagnosis—Dr. H. B. Cole. The menu is given below:

Celery Oyster Stew.
Chicken Salad Crisp Waters
Baked Quail With Dressing
Mallard Duck Pressed Oranges
Sherbet
Mashed Potatoes French Peas
Peach Roll with Whipped Cream
Salted Almonds
Coffee Milk
Sparkling Burgundy Champagne
Cigars

CATTLE KINGS ARE PASSING

Tenderfeet Are Up in Arms in South Dakota at Present Time.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 6.—Cattle kings and live stock barons of South Dakota, whose herds have in the past ranged at will throughout vast confines of grazing lands in the western part of the state, will soon be forced out of business.

The despised tenderfeet agriculturists who have settled in large numbers in western South Dakota are up in arms and the picturesque cattle king and his roving cowboys will soon be relegated to the domain of memory.

The farmers will demand of the legislature that it pass a law restraining cattle from running at large that shall apply with equal force in all parts of the state, this law applying now only to territory east of the Missouri river.

An effort was made two years ago looking to this end, but the old ranchmen on the elevation who have held sway in that country for thirty years or more were able to overcome the opposition and defeated all attempts to pass a herd law.

In the last two years, however, hundreds of farmers have moved into the range country, and two great railroad systems have built their lines to the Black Hills country, and the people there are determined to have their farms free from the attack of roving cattle and horses, since they are raising crops.

Dogs Now Add to Terror.

Messina, Jan. 6.—Dogs now constitute one of the greatest dangers to the refugees here. These animals, starving and often rabid from lack of water, gnaw corpses like hyenas and frequently attack the refugees themselves. Many people are shooting all vagrant dogs at night.

Decision Is Reserved.

Ida Bell, a regress, was arrested by Deputy Constable Zoellig last night, charged with disturbing the peace of Martha Alexander. Judge Rickman heard the evidence today and reserved decision until Saturday.

Two Runs by Firemen.

A burning flue at the home of Mrs. Henry Jolifs, 414 East Thirteenth street, at 6:30 o'clock this morning, necessitated a run by the fire department, but no damage resulted.

The department was called to the 1400 block on West Main street at 9:30 o'clock last night, where prairie grass was on fire. There was no damage.

To Take Up Postal Bank Bill.

Washington, Jan. 6.—When the senate convened today it was understood that a bill to establish postal savings banks will be taken up after the disposal of routine business.

FREE SEEDS ARE SCARCE

SENATOR SORGHUM AND SENATOR CORNTASSEL ARE UP IN ARMS.

LOSS OF THE PERQUISITE CAUSES ALARM

Owing to Short Crops, Each Congressman Will Have Only 10,000 Packages to Send to His Many Constituents.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Senator Sorghum and Congressman Cornassel and other solons from the bucolic districts are up in arms because of the reduction that has been made in the amount of free seeds to be distributed among their constituents this year.

Free seeds are among the most valuable arguments used by congressmen for impressing the desirability of their re-election upon rural voters, and the loss of even a portion of this perquisite is viewed with alarm.

Owing to the high price of seeds, resulting from a crop shortage, each congressman will have only 10,000 packages of vegetable seeds to distribute among his constituents.

In recent years the quota of each member has been 12,500 packages. The quota of flower seeds, 500 packages, remains the same.

An effort will undoubtedly be made to have the appropriation increased, so as to make up the deficiency. This will be opposed by Representative Weeks and other conservative members.

Mr. Weeks invariably votes against free seeds. He says he would not object if he had no seeds to distribute, and he believes the government might as well give pianos to the constituents of congressmen as garden seeds.

WOMAN DIGS FOR TREASURE

Valuable Papers, She Says, but There May Be Jewels.

Boonville, Mo., Jan. 6.—A woman who says she is Mrs. Mary Curtin, of Kansas City, and two boys have been digging around a sycamore tree on a hill near the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway bridge in the western city limits since New Year's day.

The woman and one boy dig constantly, the other boy remaining on watch among the curious persons who are attracted by the woman's mysterious actions. She says valuable papers are buried there.

The police believe she may be seeking buried diamonds. The woman wears patent leather pumps and silk stockings as she works.

COLDEST OF WINTER

Today's Temperature Was Lowest Thus Far in Season.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 6.—Today was the coldest of the winter in this part of the southwest, the lowest temperature recorded this morning being 8 below at Kansas City, St. Joseph, Mo., Topeka and Dodge City, Kas. Oklahoma City was 6 above, Omaha 13 below, Lincoln, 9 below, Chicago, 9 below; Central Iowa, from 16 to 20 below; 30 below at St. Paul, Minn., 40 below at Regina, Canada, 32 below at Winnipeg, Manitoba, and 30 below at Devil's Lake, N. D.

Batch of "Vags" Jailed.

James Kelly, Charles Phillips, Edward Barker, James Allen, William Roberts, T. Dunlap and D. Moteland were given fifteen days each in jail in the Four Courts today for vagrancy.

A "NEAR BEER" CASE NOW

HEAVY TAX HAS BEEN PLACED ON THOSE WHO DEAL IN THE BEVERAGE.

SOLD UNDER THE PROHIBITION REGIME

It Looks Like Beer, Tastes Like Beer, Smells Like Beer, Is Made by the Brewer and Is Put Up in Beer Bottles.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 6.—Nearly 200 dealers in "two-per-cent," a brewery product, are directly interested in the "near beer" tax test case, which comes up today. A heavy tax has been imposed on the dealers in "near beer," which beverage is largely sold in Georgia under the prohibition regime, and the test case will have an important bearing on the traffic. The Georgia brand of "near beer" looks like beer, tastes like beer, smells like beer, is made by the breweries and is put up in beer bottles. Yet it is claimed that it contains less than two per cent alcohol, and therefore does not intoxicate.

Before the prohibition law went into effect about ninety-five beer saloons were doing business in Augusta, whereas, at the present time only about forty-six are selling "near beer." It will therefore be seen that the sale of the latter variety is not nearly so extensive as the sale of real beer.

The brewers figure that a man will never take "near beer," no matter how excellent its legitimate quality, if it is possible for him to procure the "real thing." And much of the latter is being sold, despite the prohibition law, and despite the fact that many people have come to derive limited satisfaction from the use of "near beer."

Breweries in other states ship real beer to Georgia "blind" tigers. Georgia brewers must, perforce, manufacture none other than "near beer," and this product, needless to say, finds slow sale anywhere save in localities where the prohibition law is rigidly enforced.

Breweries in Georgia must now produce "near beer" or violate the law. Although the quality of material used in its production is of course inferior to that which is used in making beer of the real variety, the aggregate cost of production is practically the same. Maintenance expenses at the large plants have not materially decreased, and although "near beer" is sold for almost the same price as for higher class goods, this increase is overbalanced by the decrease in the extent of sales and the undiminished cost of production.

It is stated by a prominent local brewer that there has thus far been no organized movement among brewers against the prohibition law, but that almost every plant in any wise affected by its enactment has been seriously hurt.

HAINS' CROSS EXAMINATION

Accused Man Denies Many of the Accusations of Prosecution.

Flushing, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Thornton Hains became slightly ill just before court opened today, but recovered quickly and his cross examination was resumed.

Hains denied that at a dinner with Capt. Hains and his wife over a year ago he had complained bitterly of Annis because his manuscripts had been refused because of his influence. The witness said he had learned from servants that Annis often visited the home of Capt. Hains.

"Do you ever remember saying to Mrs. Hains about Annis, 'I don't want to meet that man, for I will have to shoot him if I meet him, for you know I have threatened to shoot him on sight'?"

"No, I didn't," replied the witness.

Down to Zero at 4 A. M.

At 4 o'clock Wednesday morning, January 6, 1909, the mercury reached zero at Burlington, Central Iowa, at 7 o'clock a. m. it was 2 degrees above zero. The night was the coldest of the winter.

Missionary Society Meeting.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Congregational church will meet with Mrs. R. L. Hale, 400 West Fourth street, at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

THE RETIRING BUSINESS.

E. E. Huntington, the multi-millionaire railroad builder, is the latest of the great capitalists of industry to announce his retirement from active business life, and is going to take up as his hobby the introduction of tropical fruits in Southern California.

Carnegie retires and goes to building libraries. Rockefeller retires and goes to endowing colleges. Harman retires—and then doesn't, but he'll probably go to endowing some sort of monuments of steel and stone when he really does.

It would be intensely interesting to know the real feelings of these men of vast wealth when they come to the period of shaking off some of the burden of their possession.

Probably some of them feel that the mere fact of their being able to "endow" fully justifies all the processes through which they skinned the rest of us piecemeal for their dollars. Perhaps others of them really do want a rest and let go in order to avoid the ever-accumulating burdens.

However this may be, it is a bit curious that the hobbies which they purpose to devote their future seems to be very similar. Huntington may prove the exception to this.

If Huntington can make the desert places of Southern California, or Southern Anywhere-else, produce fruits and vegetables, he will have created a monument for himself.

IT'S A WAY KINGS HAVE.

I must be a piece of rare good fortune to be the favorite of a monarch, when that monarch happens to be of generous turn of mind, which appears to have animated Edward, of England, in making a gift of the rather handsome sum of $300,000 to a married woman, famed for her beauty, according to the press dispatches and court reports.

Apparently there are no conditions accompanying the gift, that is, none that are published, but even with the knowledge that history has given us of the ways of kings, the incident is, to say the least, sensationally illuminating in the undercurrents of court life in Europe.

According to the details of the affair, as given to the public, this modern favorite of a king is the wife of an "obscure merchant," and too poor of herself to maintain the station which seems to be required of those who move in the social circles frequented by majesty. So that in order to balance things, so to speak, and to make life easier for her, she received a paid up lease of a handsome mansion, amounting to the value noted, and said to be from "an anonymous donor," though no one has the slightest doubt of the identity of the royal giver.

Even blase English high life has been startled by the incident, and in the outside world it is not to be marveled at that the affair should cause a great deal more than passing comment. It certainly does appear peculiar to the ordinary mind and understanding that in this twentieth century a man occupying so exalted a position as that of the monarch of England should manifest so utter a disregard for the common proprieties. For no matter how the gift is cloaked or under what pretense it is made, the very fact of one man making so rich a present to another man's wife is certainly open to criticism and question.

And further than this, it is a startling comment on the conditions that must obtain in the so-called court life, that the woman so favored should be at the very head and front of the circles in which the ruler of the country moves. It is indeed astonishing, beyond words, that in the very center of the greatest metropolis of the world, supposedly a center for the progress and development of the great and good things of life, that such things could be, and not only be, but accepted and tolerated by a society that prides itself on its dignity and place.

It would surely have been more in keeping with the proprieties if this ruler, having great wealth to bestow, and being anxious to make a right use of it, had handed it out for the relief and comfort of many thousands of his starving subjects, right at his palace gates, instead of this favorite and so-called beauty and wife of an other man.

Truly, it would seem that a sore blow has been dealt morals, decency and right living by this latest illustration of what might be termed profligacy, if kings may be termed in such manner and without high treason.

It is a safe guess that there will be for some time to come less riding and more sleeping nights in the vicinity of Union City, Tenn.

With a contribution of $500,000 by congress, America's aid to Italy will compare favorably with that of any other country.

Helena appears to be a queen in more senses than one.

Ask for "Little Squaw" Cigars—5c.A Noiseless Room.

For many physical researches a perfectly noiseless room is a desideratum.
If such could be devised it would open out new possibilities of research. At the University of Utrecht the problem has been apparently successfully solved by the room designed by Zwaardemaker. The walls and ceiling of the room are 11 inches thick, and are formed of six separate layers.
The first consists of a feltlike material of horsehair, known as tricho-plese, this is followed by a layer of porous stone isolated from the floor by sheet lead. An air space of about an inch is followed by wood, and then a course of ground cork and sand. The final layer is of specially prepared ground cork, known as korkstein.

Woman Operates Alaska Copper Mine.
On the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, Alaska, little traveled and off the beaten paths of sea commerce, is a copper mine which for several years has been operated under the management of a woman. It has been a successful venture, made so from careful management, and the owner, Tola Wyman, is perhaps the only woman in Alaska who is shipping ore out of that territory. For two years she has been sending her product to the Tacoma smelter.

Mrs. Wyman is of middle age, with ruddy cheeks and with health enough

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible.
But I can now surely kill the pain and purge of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredients with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without these last ingredients I successfully treated many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. These and like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water.
And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

MAJOR T. ROOSEVELT, JR.

THE NAMESAKE OF THE PRES-IDENT FULL FLEDGED MIL-ITARY OFFICER.

RODE IN VAN WITH GOVERNOR'S PARTY

Governor Lilley Explains Why He Appointed Young Man a Member of His Staff—Inherits Father's Earnestness.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 6.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is today a full fledged military officer, with the rank and title of major. Clad in a gay uniform, with much gold braid, the son of the president rode proudly in the van with Governor Lilley's escort in the inaugural procession, while the crowds cheered the doughty warrior who has added the profession of arms to the trade of carpet making. While the appointment was announced some time ago, it did not become fully effective until today.

As Governor Lilley, when a member of congress, was the central figure in the submarine-boat scandal at Washington and was subjected to the bitterest of personal attacks during his campaign for the governorship, his appointment of young Roosevelt as an aid de camp was a great political surprise.

The republican leaders insist that President Roosevelt consented to his son's appointment because of his wish to indicate that he approved of Governor Lilley both personally and politically. Many of the Taft leaders were active opponents of Lilley in the campaign.

The naming of Theodore, Jr., is considered a victory for the governor, both as an indication of presidential favor and because it is believed that it will add social eclat to the administration.

As an aide Major Roosevelt will have no very onerous duties to perform, although he will be put to considerable expense and must insure himself to hard campaigning of the kind so heroically borne by the Old Guard of New York and the Ancient and Honorables of Boston.

It has been the rule heretofore to confine such appointments to natives of Connecticut, and no explanation is offered why Lilley trampled on custom and named an outsider on his staff.

Governor Lilley said: "In appointing young Roosevelt to my staff, I was influenced by my own acquaintance with the young man for several years back, and admiration for his many sterling qualities. He inherits a great deal of the father's earnestness, his eagerness to strike out in the world and to carve his own future, as is shown by his taking a position in the carpet factory at Thompsonville, and working with all the vim of one who did not have an illustrious parent and depended only upon his own energies. He is very democratic in his manners, and never presumes upon the relationship in his business or social conduct."

Mr. and Mrs. Lilley have been warm friends of Admiral and Mrs. William S. Cowles, of Farmington. The latter is a sister of the president, and doubtless this friendship had something to do with the appointment of her nephew.

Good in Either Event.
Gen. Dabney H. Maury tells in his "Recollections of a Virginian" of an old lady in Fredericksburg who was reduced to taking in boarders in order to make both ends meet. On one occasion of peculiar stress, the lady was so empty that the good lady took to her bed and summoned her servant
"Nancy," she said, "there's nothing in the house for my boarders to eat except mush. But give them that. If they are Christians, they will accept it in resignation and thankfulness. And if they are not Christians, it is a deal too good for them."

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgement.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

TO REMEMBER CARMACK

THIS IS THE RALLYING CRY OF
THE TEMPERANCE MEN
IN TENNESSEE.

DEMAND PASSAGE OF PROHIBITION BILL

One Is Wanted That Will Drive All of the Saloons From the State
—The Dead Man Is Now
Hailed as Martyr.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 6.—"Remember Carmack" is the rallying cry of the temperance forces of Tennessee, who are gathering in the capital during the first week of the legislative session to demand the passage of a prohibition bill that will drive every saloon from the state. Only three Tennessee big cities are now left in which liquor can be legally sold, and there is every prospect that before long Memphis, Nashville, and Chattanooga will be rendered "dry."

The assassination of Senator Carmack, the editor of a local newspaper, by a political enemy, has been made an issue by the friends of state-wide prohibition.

Carmack was last year a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination against Governor Patterson. He ran on a prohibition platform, but was defeated by a narrow margin after a heated campaign in which the liquor traffic was the principal issue.

He did not allow his defeat at the polls to end the campaign, but kept the prohibition question to the forefront through editorials in the newspaper of which he was the editor. It was his devoted advocacy of the temperance cause, declare his friends, that led to his tragic death in a duel on the streets of Nashville.

Now he is being hailed as a martyr to prohibition, and a state-wide law, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquor, is urged as the most fitting monument to his memory.

Despite reverses they suffered in the first conflicts with the liquor element, the leaders of the temperance army are confident that public opinion will force the present legislature to pass a prohibition law.

It is alleged that the prohibition bill will have more than the necessary seven votes in the senate, and that nearly two-thirds of the members of the house are state-wide, or will eventually be brought to that way of thinking by the force of public opinion.

The liquor dealers have not yet given up hope that Tennessee will be saved from the impending fate of prohibition, and the battle between the "wets" and "drys" will be fought to a finish. Opponents of prohibition assert that the attempt to make the Carmack murder an issue is absurd, and that the assassination of the former senator was due to personal differences and had nothing to do with the liquor controversy.

SALARY OF $1,500 EACH
TWELVE MONTHS.

EXPERIMENT STATION SANCUM CHAIR

Examination Commenced Before the Civil Service Commission
Today and Will Continue
Over Tomorrow.

Washington, Jan. 6.—An experienced journalist, with a thorough knowledge of animal husbandry, and dairy philosophy as a side line, and a few dozen other necessary qualifications, can get an editorial job with Uncle Sam by applying today to the civil service commission.

The job pays the munificent salary of $1,500 a year.

The editorial chair in the sanctum of the Experiment Station Record, a red hot monthly devoted to cattle society and oleomargarine endurance contests, has been vacant for some time past, and the civil service commission has been given a hurry up call to fill the vacancy.

The examination commenced today and will be continued through tomorrow. It is admitted that there has been no great rush of competent applicants for the job, and at a previous examination only one man showed up.

According to those who have considered the job, all that is required is a perfect knowledge of entomology, economic zoology and veterinary science, together with a working assortment of French, German, Italian, Irish, Hindustani, African and English.

Animal husbandry and dairy philosophy are some of the minor subjects included in the examination.

CATARH CURED

No Cure, No Pay, Is a Most Generous Offer.

To get an antiseptic strong enough to kill catarrh germs and not destroy the tissues of the membrane at the same time, has been a problem which was never solved until the discovery of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me).

Hyomei is prepared from encalypsus, the most powerful yet healing antiseptic known. Breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane four or five times a day, and in a few days the germs will disappear.

The inflamed condition will go, too, and the snuffling, hawking and offensive breath and the discharge of mucus and crusts in the nose will cease.

Then why should any catarrh sufferer hesitate, when the W. E. Bard Drug Co. has such faith in Hyomei that they offer to return your money if after a trial Hyomei does not cure catarrh.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including the inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Hyomei also cures asthma, croup, sore throat, coughs, colds or grip.

OMNIBUS CLAIMS BILLS

TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS TO TAKE THEM UP FOR CONSIDERATION.

THEY WILL BRING PAY TO LARGE NUMBER

The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill Also Likely to Be Considered During the Week.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Today the senate will take up the so-called omnibus claims bill, a big measure, the passage of which will bring pay and cash to a large number of persons who have claims against the government and have been waiting, more or less patiently for their money.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which carries the money for most of the salaries in the various government departments, probably will be acted on this week.

So far there has been no constructive legislation attempted. The senate has been waiting on the house, and in doing this has made it apparent that it is not the intention of the leaders to do much more than pass the usual appropriation bills at this last session of the Sixtieth congress.

A bill will be introduced in both houses of congress this week to correct defects in the laws governing the administrative features of banking. It was drawn by Lawrence O. Murray, comptroller of the currency.

It will follow the lines of the testimony which was given to the commission in the presence of the legislative committee of the American Bankers' association and other prominent national bankers. It is not intended that it shall embrace any proposed changes of the law likely to engender controversy, but that the amendments shall be confined to acknowledged defects.

CONTEST WAS A BIG JOKE

WHITAKER'S PROTEST ON HAMLIN'S SEAT MET MUCH HARASSMENT.

PING PONG THE PAPERS, IT IS ALLEGED

Improperly Addressed, Weaubleau Man's Documents Are Sadly Misused—Nothing in the Case, 'Tis Said.

Washington, Jan. 6.—That the alleged contest by Col. John Whitaker, of Weaubleau, Hickory county, for the seat in the Sixty-first congress to which Courtney W. Hamlin was elected, was the most amusing ever was the consensus of opinion here.

Mr. Hamlin is inclined to think that the "Sage of Weaubleau" was only trying to have fun with him.

If this was the fact, the colonel was eminently successful, for he surely had "Brother Hamlin" worried for some weeks. Then, when the fell blow was expected to fall, the papers in the case were ordered sent back to Missouri.

"Now, wouldn't that beat anything you ever heard of?" asked Mr. Hamlin. "Of course, I really was not worried after December 25, the last day on which a contest might legally be filed according to the plain reading of the statute. How anybody managed to figure that a contest might be filed as late as the 28th of December I do not see.

"I wasn't a bit worried upon learning that the papers had arrived in Washington. But I am very curious to know what delayed them. As a matter of fact, I never had any knowledge of the real ground of the so-called contest, further than brief statements from the newspapers."

Other Missouri members take the same view of the matter, none of them being convinced that good grounds for a contest against Mr. Hamlin's seat exist.

One of the grounds advanced was that in Howard and Saline counties the ballots were not handed to the voters in the manner prescribed by law. As explained here, the law requires that each voter be handed blank ballots for every candidate in the field. This, it was declared, was not done in the two counties mentioned.

When a democrat presented himself to vote he was handed a democratic ballot and no other. When a republican appeared he got the ballot of his party nominee, and no other, etc. On this and some other grounds Col. Whitaker wanted the votes cast in those counties declared null and void.

The amusing features of the contest lie in the manner in which the papers were to be served. A written request to serve the papers on Mr. Hamlin was received by the United States marshal here in advance of the papers. The papers reached Washington Dec. 24, addressed to the marshal of the house of representatives. Now, it happens that there is no such position on the roster as "marshal of the house of representatives." Therefore, the postoffice authorities of Washington may be pardoned for holding the registered package a couple of days—if not longer.

The package reached the postoffice of the house of representatives Dec. 26, and the sergeant-at-arms was informed of its receipt. However, the sergeant-at-arms did not move quickly in the matter, apparently having no curiosity as to what the package contained and did not call for it until the evening of Dec. 28. Whether it was laid aside on the theory that a Christmas present reposed within is not known, but the letter was not opened until the morning of the 29th.

Since the United States marshal was requested to serve the papers, the package was sent to his office at about noon on the 30th, the expectation being that Mr. Hamlin's secretary would be served, which would amount to the same thing as if the papers were handed to the congressman personally.

In view of the fact that a previous letter requested the marshal to serve Mr. Hamlin, and the sergeant-at-arms had informed that official that the Missourian would be out of town several days as a member of the committee to attend the funeral of the late Representative Davey, of Louisiana, there appeared to be no good reason for rush or excitement. So the papers reposed in the marshal's desk until late Thursday, when a telegram from Missouri requested that they be not served. The marshal forthwith dropped them in the mail and sent them back to Missouri.

Mr. Hamlin feels that he can go on his way rejoicing without the slightest fear that the ghost of the so-called contest will rise up to further disturb him.

"But I want to tell you," he said, "the fellows back home who think I have a snap here may thank their lucky stars that they don't occupy my seat. Some of them fought me to a frazzle for the nomination, fought me through the campaign, and the good old colonel has been fighting or teasing me ever since.

"The joys of congressional life are not what they are cracked up to be. Where a man must fight for the nomination and at every point after he gets in is in hot water most of the time—and hot water is not generally looked upon as good company."

Return to Old Conditions.

By reconstructing the old domestic hand loom for use with power a weaver near Chemnitz has opened the way for a considerable return to textile manufacture in the home, not only in Saxony, but in other localities where electricity provides cheap power on a small scale. The new loom is built almost entirely of wood. It requires a space of 10 1/2 feet in length, seven feet in width and 7 1/2 feet in height, weighs 4,500 pounds and one-half horsepower is sufficient to run it. The Jacquard apparatus has been ingeniously applied so as to make unnecessary the ordinary heavy lifting box. This household machine is very quiet in operation, sells at $50, or about one-fourth the price of an iron mechanical loom, and the cost of weaving in the early experiments has been less than half of that with the factory loom. It is to be adapted soon for weaving manifold thread instead of the single thread of the first model.

Arab Marksmanship.

Regarding the war in Morocco, have among the French troops, a French journal recalls a remark once made by the French general, Canrobert, in describing the taking of Zaatcha in the Arabian campaign.

"All around me," said the famous general, "the staff officers were being killed like flies. I alone remained untouched. Why? For a very simple reason. As usual, I was wearing full dress uniform, with all my decorations and medals glistening in the sun. Consequently the Arabs aimed at me personally."

The times have changed since then, and the Moroccans are better marksmen, as the French troops found to their cost.

Now for Pure Air.

Ventilate, ventilate, ventilate—in doors and out—outdoors by living in the open as much as possible.

During these warm sunny days the people generally should freely ventilate their living and working quarters. Owners or caretakers of halls, churches, schools or other places of public assemblages are especially advised to do so. Those who may have been timid about draughts and cold during the winter months should certainly avail themselves of this favorable opportunity to purify their premises and thus safeguard health.

WHEN HE CHANGED HIS MIND.

Announcement About New Cook
Seemed to Make a Difference.

Two prosperous business men met on a Broadway local, says the New York Times.

"Howdy do, old man, haven't seen you in an age. How's Mrs. Dayton?"

"Fine and dandy, Brown; and how are you and the madam?"

"Mrs. Brown and your humble servant are both well, but by Jove, our health would improve if we saw the Joseph P. Daytons ringing our door bell."

"Yes, yes, I admit we've been relaxing. Mrs. D. and I both speak of you so often and reproach ourselves for our neglect. It's been fully a year since we dined with you."

"You're shy a few months, but we'll let that pass. Suppose you come over to dinner one night next week."

"Really, I can't just say. I think I heard Mrs. Dayton say something about next week being all taken up, and—"

"Well, old man, here is my station;
better come; we've got a new cook;
she's a dandy. Good night."

"Why, yes, Brown, we'll make the date over the phone," shouted Dayton, after the hurrying figure.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

BROTHERHOOD RAILWAY TRAIN
MEN MET AT JEFFERSON CITY.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met at Jefferson City Tuesday to select a legislative committee and decide what lines of legislation to ask of the assembly this winter.

Twenty-three of the twenty-nine lodges in the state were represented. The meeting was continued today.

George Slightholm, of Kansas City, was elected chairman, Michael Daly, of St. Louis, vice chairman, and Frank A. Longbrake, of Springfield, secretary.

Turned State's Evidence.

In the circuit court today John Long, who entered a plea of guilty yesterday on a charge of aiding in breaking into a Missouri Pacific box car, was sentenced to serve a sentence of two years in the penitentiary, says the Jefferson City Democrat.

Long being under age and having been used as a state's witness against his partners, John A. Dockerty, Russell Jones and John De Vogelhour, Judge W. H. Martin will either grant him a parole or send him to the reformatory school.

In the case of his three partners, the case has been in progress the major portion of the day and at the time of going to press it was in the hands of the jury.

Trainman's Hand Lacerated.

V. G. Conner, the Katy train auditor, is laying off, being incapacitated by a bad cut on his right hand, which he received while on his run between this city and Sedalia a few days ago, says the Parsons Eclipse.

He was standing in the front end of the chair car, when the train stopped suddenly, throwing him forward and against the door with great force.

His right hand came in contact with the glass in the upper part of the door, shattering the glass and badly lacerating the palm of his hand. He will probably be laid up several days.

A Missouri Pacific Case.

An interesting case argued in the supreme court at Jefferson City Tuesday was that of the state against the Missouri Pacific Railway company, on appeal from Benton county.

The Missouri Pacific was fined in Benton county for failure to run a regular passenger train on the Warsaw branch of the system.

The company operates a mixed train—combined freight and passenger—between Sedalia and Warsaw, but the patrons of the line want a regular passenger train put on.

Conductor Laying Off.

W. S. Kirkpatrick, a north end Katy conductor, is laying off on account of the illness of Mrs. Mary K. Hough, Mrs. Kirkpatrick's mother, who is in a critical condition at Sedalia, says the Denison Herald.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick has been with her mother for several days, and Mr. Kirkpatrick is expecting to be called there at any time.

Broke Into a Car.

William Doyle, alias Cockey Walsh, was found guilty by a jury in the circuit court at Jefferson City Tuesday on a charge of breaking a seal on a Missouri Pacific box car and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Automatic Couplers.

Supt. N. J. Finney, of the M. K. & T., returned last night from Nevada. A. R. Thickett, claim agent for the M. K. & T., is here from St. Louis on business.

Missouri Pacific train No. 22, due here at 10:30 a. m. arrived at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon.

George Baker, a Sedalia boy, who is now engaged in railroading in New Mexico, is here to visit home folks.

J. P. Rodeman, traveling freight agent for the Missouri Pacific, is able to be at his desk again after being off duty on account of illness.

G. W. Smith, superintendent of machinery for the Missouri Pacific, was a visitor in Sedalia yesterday and last night, and went west in his special car on train No. 3 this morning.

John Hull, a Missouri Pacific passenger conductor, came in from Jefferson City this morning to do first extra passenger work out of this city. He was relieved on the river route by Conductor J. M. Patterson.

BARGAIN STORE OPEN TOMORROW

Jamison Bros., who recently purchased the Bargain store at 506 Ohio street, will open the store tomorrow, Thursday, Jan. 7. New stocks have been added and the other improvements made makes the store the most complete of its kind in Sedalia.

Temperature Causes Trouble.

The electric locomotives used in the Simpson tunnel are troubled with excessive condensation, affecting the insulation, due to the difference in temperature in the tunnel and outside.

Superstition in Persia.

One of the greatest trials of the missionaries in Persia is to find means for counteracting the gross superstition that exists there among the common people.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 47.

More About a Dry Town.

What a few more citizens say of Waverly since they voted out their saloons:

"I am 76 years old, have lived in Waverly fifty years, and been in business here for forty years. I am proud to say that since Waverly voted dry last JULY that my business has been better with less credit than I have ever known before. Thank God for a dry town."—Henry Barnett, Grocer.

"My business has increased 100 per cent since last July."—Al Tussey, Blacksmith.

"My business is decidedly better since the town voted dry last July. Less credit, and more customers."—Jos. J. Fel, Butcher.

"I have been in business for twenty years in Waverly, and business was never better since the first of July when the saloons failed to get license."—W. P. Milnor, Furniture Dealer.

We have many such statements from people in Waverly but space forbids their use here. The strangest thing of all is that many business men the world over seem to think the saloon must get their customers' money before they can sell them THEIR wares. This space will be given to any business man that can explain how saloons help ANY business but the bawdy house gamblers, etc.

THE DRY.

An Eclipse---

The one great sale to which all Sedalia looks forward to as the banner bargain event of the year is Our Annual January Clearing Sale. We make the positive statement that this sale will eclipse anything ever attempted. The Greatest Sale of 1909. The Greatest Bargain Event in Sedalia's History.

The whole store is in active preparation the big knife is busy cutting prices, and it is not likely that you'll want to miss the sale. Watch our advertisements! Watch for the big price circulars! There'll be bargains to startle the town.

DENTIST MAKES A COMPLAINT.

Too Much "Make-up" on Women Who Visit His Office.

The dentist's sleeve was smeared with a pale dust. He beat it with his palm, and a perfumed cloud arose.

"Make-up," he said, laughing. "The day's usual harvest of make-up. Why, the deuce, to front the fierce white light of a dental chair, will women come to me with make-up plastered thick on their pretty faces?"

"They all, or nearly all, do it. Their lips are reddened, their brows penciled, their cheeks rouged, and in a few cases the tiny network of veins in the temples is outlined in blue.

"Pegging away at their teeth, I mop up all that make-up on my coat sleeve. I smear red over white noses, black over pink cheeks. Phew! Look out!"

And brushing his cuff again, he leaped back to escape the sweet smelling cloud that filled the air.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

AMUSEMENTS.

SEDALIA THEATER.

Grace Cameron Tonight.

Charming Grace Cameron will be at the Sedalia theatre tonight in what is promised to be the musical hit of the season. It is called "Little Dollie Dimples" and affords Miss Cameron more scope to display her ability than any vehicle in which she has yet been seen. She is surrounded by a company of sixty well known comedians, singers and musicians. This is the second year of this successful attraction.

WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

"Maloney's Wedding Day" at Wood's opera house, matinee and night, Sunday, Jan. 10, is an extremely funny farcical comedy, with a theme full of burlesque situations, indescribably ludicrous; movements that are brisk and dialogue terse, humorous and running over with repartee; leading to climaxes having a whirl and "go." The theme and dialogue lead to the natural introduction of specialties, both individual and general ensemble; pretty girls, funny comedians, singers, dancers and faithful mimics. The company is composed of twenty talented, novelty, specialty pantomime and versatile performers. The leading character is that of an Irish comedian, but there are four other distinctly good parts, with excellent characters, strongly drawn and varied in characterization.
